TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

THIS DAY this cause came before the Court on the request of Plaintiff, Leisha Jane Pickering, seeking a Temporary Restraining Order against her former attorney of record, Bettie Ruth Johnson, and the Court, having jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter, and finding that the documents may be relevant in these proceedings which involve different parties and causes of action and that immediate, irreparable harm may result to Leisha Jane Pickering if this Court does not grant the motion and further finding that no harm will come to Defendant as a result of this Order.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order against her former attorney, Bettie Ruth Johnson, is well taken and is hereby granted as follows;

1. That Plaintiff's former attorney, Bettie Ruth Johnson, is hereby ordered and directed to forthwith under seal make and turn over a copy of all documents including any journals and/or other documents that were obtained by her during the course and scope of her representation while she was the attorney for Plaintiff. Specifically, Bettie Ruth Johnson is ordered to make a copy of all documents, place them under seal and file them personally with this Court. These sealed documents shall be held until a final Order is entered in the case of Charles Willis Pickering, Jr. vs. Leisha Jane Prather Pickering, Cause No. 2008-0668, in the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi

2. This Court does not intend to counter an order of another court and will abide by the order as it applies to its case; however, after the final disposition of the order is entered this Court will have a hearing with all parties herein for a final determination.
3. A copy of this order is to be sent to the Chancellor of Madison County in Cause no, 2008-0668.
4. That this Order is binding upon Bettie Ruth Johnson until a hearing can take place at after the final order is entered as stated above.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that security is not required of Leisha Jane Pickering or Bettie Ruth Johnson.

SO ORDERED this 16 day of July, 2009, at 6:45 o'clock P.m.
